MEMORANDUM

To: James L. Gillis Jr., City Manager

From: Becky Witte, Deputy City Clerk

Re: Consideration of Second and Final Reading of Ordinance 2023-06, allowing the City Council the option to designate the Planning and Appeals Board to perform the duties of the Parks, Recreation, and ADA Advisory Board.

Date: April 14, 2023

The City Council approved the First Reading of Ordinance 2023-06 on April 11, 2023. This is the Second and Final Reading.

The City Council has several boards which serve in an advisory capacity and is empowered to establish, create, define and eliminate these boards.

In June 2020, the City Council combined the Parks and Recreation Board and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Committee. The board meets quarterly. They are tasked with reviewing and making recommendations to the City Council with respect to parks, recreation, park regulations, issues related to disability and access with an emphasis on identifying barrier removal projects and other related matters as determined by the City Council.

The Planning and Appeals Board meets monthly (or as needed for review of applications and issues) and has experience with making recommendations to the City Council on new developments, codes and processes. The Planning and Appeal Board's experience and expertise is an ideal fit to serve as the Parks, Recreation, and ADA Advisory Board when needed.

Amending Article II. Parks, Recreation and ADA Advisory Board within the Code of Ordinances by adding Section 10.5-19. Designation of Planning and Appeals Board to Perform Duties, allows the City Council the option to designate the Planning and Appeals Board to perform the duties of the Parks, Recreation, and ADA Advisory Board to assist with the efficiency of city operations.

Staff recommends the City Council approve Ordinance No. 2023-06, allowing the City Council the option to designate the Planning and Appeals Board to perform the duties of the Parks, Recreation, and ADA Advisory Board.

A Resolution has been added to the agenda for City Council's consideration of designating the Planning and Appeals Board to perform the duties of the Parks, Recreation, and ADA Advisory Board.
